Number People Usage Policy

This Number People Usage Policy has been developed to ensure the security, reliability and privacy of Number People systems and networks and the Networks and systems of others and to maintain the image and reputation of Number People as a responsible provider.

We expect our Customers to use our services legally and with courtesy and responsibility.

We reserve the right to disable or delete any and all accounts held by users who, in Number People's sole discretion, break this Usage Policy.

General Conduct

1. Customers are prohibited from transmitting on or through any of Number People's services, any material that is, in Number People' sole discretion, unlawful, threatening, abusive, libellous, or encourages conduct that would constitute a criminal offence, give rise to civil liability, or otherwise violate any local, national or international law, statute or regulation.

2. Number People's services may only be used for lawful purposes. Transmission, distribution, or storage of any information, data or material in violation of UK regulation or law is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, material protected by copyright, trademark, trade secret, or any other statute. Number People reserves the right to remove such illegal material from its servers.

3. The Customer is responsible for providing and maintaining accurate and up-to-date billing information, contact telephone number(s) and address information. Furnishing false data on the signup form, contract, or online application, including fraudulent use of credit card numbers, is grounds for immediate termination, and may subject the offender to civil or criminal liability.

4: The Number People service must not be used for auto-dialling, continuous or extensive call forwarding and call diversion, fax or voicemail broadcasting and continuous or extensive inbound only services. Number People reserve the right to immediately disable or modify your Service if we determine, in our sole and absolute discretion, that your use of the Service is, or at any time was, inconsistent with normal business usage patterns.

5: To maintain active service, Number People telephone numbers must remain active. The definition of an active telephone number is one that has received active calls within a 90 day period, or which has had a paid for credit added to the account within a 90 day period.

Security
1. Customers may not attempt to circumvent user authentication or security of any host, network, or account. This includes, but is not limited to, accessing data not intended for the Customer, logging into a server or account the Customer is not expressly authorized to access, or probing the security of other networks.

2. Customers may not attempt to interfere with service to any user, host, or network. This includes, but is not limited to, “flooding” of networks, deliberate attempts to overload a service, and attempts to “crash” a host.

3. Customers may not use any kind of program/script/command, or send messages of any kind, designed to interfere with a user's terminal session, via any means, locally or by the Internet.

4. Customers must safeguard their account passwords to prevent unauthorized access to their account.

5. Users who violate systems or network security may incur criminal or civil liability. Number People will cooperate fully with investigations of violations of systems or network security at other sites, including cooperating with law enforcement authorities in the investigation of suspected criminal violations.

6. Number People reserves the right to check the security of a customer’s equipment or devices used to connect to its network if it reasonably believes that equipment on the customer's network may be at risk from external attack (hacking) or if they believe that its terms and conditions of use are not being followed.
