

These terms and conditions are in addition to (and do not replace) NUMBER PEOPLE general TERMS AND CONDITIONS which can be found on our website.

These terms apply to anyone who adds any unlimited call forwarding bundle to any of their NUMBER PEOPLE telephone numbers.

Unlimited UK Call Forwarding Terms and Conditions

Our unlimited call forwarding bundles cover incoming calls forwarded to standard (01,02,03) UK landline and standard (07 - Vodaphone, O2, EE and 3) UK mobiles only. Non UK standard ingress rate mobile networks or 07 prefixed telephone numbers with ingress costs above that of the standard UK mobile operators (Vodaphone, O2, EE and 3) are excluded from bundles and will be charged appropriately.

Our unlimited bundles are designed for users to carry out "normal" forwarding activity, based on our average statistical analysis. These users will not be charged for any incoming calls to their Number People telephone number where the calls are forwarded to a standard UK landline or standard UK mobile as described above.

When adding an unlimited call forwarding bundle, you are prohibited from using the service for auto-dialing, continuous or extensive call forwarding, calling cards, telemarketing (including without limitation, charitable or political solicitation or polling) fax or voicemail blasting. Number People reserves the right to immediately terminate or modify your service and charge for excess minutes at the prevailing standard rate, if we determine, in our sole discretion, that your use of the service is, or at any time was, inconsistent with normal usage patterns or not considered to be commercially viable. At all times the decision of NUMBER PEOPLE is final.

Unlimited International Call Forwarding Bundles Terms and Conditions

Our Unlimited International call forwarding bundles carry a fair usage policy of 1,000 minutes. Calls within these bundles are also rounded to the nearest minute.

You are advised to carry out periodic checks to ensure that your forwarding destination is still included in your chosen bundle as destinations may be removed at anytime without any prior warning due to fluctuation in international calling costs. Latest bundle information and included destinations can be found here www.numberpeople.co.uk/pricing
